Section 1: About WoPAI

Created in 2024, Women's Platform for Action International (WoPAI) is an international, non-profit women's association serving as an umbrella network for women's organisations and informal women's rights groups from around the world. Independent of political or religious affiliation, WoPAI is committed to advancing women's human dignity, ensuring that women and girls everywhere are able to exercise their rights and freedoms. Based in Stockholm, Sweden, its governance structure - comprising an Annual Assembly of member organisations and an elected Board - reinforces both representation and accountability.

Section 1.1: Key Principles

Holistic understanding of violence against women and girls	Including psychological, economic, administrative, domestic, sexual and reproductive violence, harmful practices, and the sexual and reproductive exploitation of women, including prostitution, surrogacy and pornography.
Women's sex-based rights	Recognition and protection of women's and girls' rights on the basis of sex, including sex-based discrimination linked to women's reproductive role and biological distinctions.
Language and communication	Support for language and legal frameworks that make women's sex-based rights visible and recognise women as legal persons.
